H.Res. 612 — Expressing the commitment of the House of Representatives to achieving victory in Iraq — as introduced (Hyde, R-IL)

Order of Business: The resolution is scheduled to be considered on Friday, December 16th, subject to a closed rule (H.Res. 619), which provides for one hour of debate.

Summary: H.Res. 319 resolves that:

- “the House of Representatives is committed to achieving victory in Iraq;
- “the Iraqi election of December 15, 2005, was a crucial victory for the Iraqi people and Iraq’s new democracy, and a defeat for the terrorists who seek to destroy that democracy;

- “the House of Representatives encourages all Americans to express solidarity with the Iraqi people as they take another step toward their goal of a free, open, and democratic society;
- “the successful Iraqi election of December 15, 2005, required the presence of United States Armed Forces, United States-trained Iraqi forces, and Coalition forces;
- “the continued presence of United States Armed Forces in Iraq will be required only until Iraqi forces can stand up so our forces can stand down, and no longer than is required for that purpose;
- “setting an artificial timetable for the withdrawal of United States Armed Forces from Iraq, or immediately terminating their deployment in Iraq and redeploying them elsewhere in the region, is fundamentally inconsistent with achieving victory Iraq;
- “the House of Representatives recognizes and honors the tremendous sacrifices made by the members of the United States Armed Forces and their families, along with the members of Iraqi and Coalition forces; and
- “the House of Representatives has unshakable confidence that, with the support of the American people and the Congress, United States Armed Forces, along with Iraqi and Coalition forces, shall achieve victory in Iraq.”

The resolution also includes the following two findings:

- “the Iraqi election of December 15, 2005, the first to take place under the newly ratified Iraqi Constitution, represented a crucial success in the establishment of a democratic, constitutional order in Iraq; and
- “who by the millions defied terrorists threats to vote, were protected by Iraqi security forces with the help of United States and Coalition forces.”
